MORGAN'S RAID.

A correspondent of the Mobile Register writes from Murfreesboro, Tenn., on the 22d ult.

Gen. Morgan having succeeded in cutting off the enemy's supplies by the destruction of fifteen miles of the Louisville Railroad, which I sent you a telegram of Sunday, will greatly aid our success. They have retreated so much in Nashville since the 24th, the day on which Morgan captured the Abolition forces at Glasgow, Kentucky. On his return to Kentucky it was no secret, I will state that the expedition left Murfreesboro, Tenn., on Sunday last, 21st instant, composed of two brigades, numbering about 3,500 men. The day before the expedition left, the gallant Colonel Bennett, of Morgan's command, returned from a scout (with about 30 men) in the neighborhood of Murfreesboro, having succeeded in capturing 2 wagons, 4 ambulances, 72 muskets and 58 head of fat cattle, which were also sent to Murfreesboro for the use of the Confederacy. This is but the first successful foray of the brave and chivalrous Col. Bennett, who has been constantly harassing the enemy since the formation of his regiment in August last. It is hardly a month ago that he captured 64 Yankee prisoners and a country of wagons, which he brought safe into our lines in spite of the repeated attacks of a superior cavalry force, outnumbering his small party at least four to one.

SPEECH OF THE QUEEN OF SPAIN.—Queen Isabella, of Spain, in her speech at the opening of the Cortes, thus alludes to her relations with foreign Powers:

My relations with foreign Powers continue to be friendly. I hope for a satisfactory conclusion of the difficulties that the disagreement of the plenipotentiaries in Mexico has imposed to the execution of the treaty of London. The unexpected obstacles that have prevented that execution have not changed the desire I feel for the accomplishment of it, and the realization of the plan upon which it was based. At the proper time I will also present to you the communications respecting the grave events which have happened on the coast of Cuba; and I feel confident that those events will not change the excellent relations which I maintain with the United States Government. Our colonies are increasing every day more flourishing in spite of the injury that the American war inflicts upon their commerce and their productions. Their distance from the Peninsula increases my solicitude in their behalf. In their Government and Administration reforms are wanted, destined, in accordance with the example of my august ancestors, to make one nation of all Spaniards in every country in the world.

DEATH BY SMALL POX.—The Standard says:

A friend writes us that a fatal case of small pox occurred near Lynchburg, Johnston, recently. Mr. David Stephenson caught it in Richmond and died in a few days. We dissent with our correspondent that steps should be taken to prevent the disease from spreading. We know of cases in various parts of the country. Vaccine can be obtained at the office of Surgeon General Warren, in this city, free of charge.

THE APPROACHING MARRIAGE OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.—The Manchester Guardian has the following paragraph:

We are informed on the best authority that the marriage of Prince of Wales is to take place in March, and April, as has been stated. It will therefore be in Lent. We understand that the Queen regrets very much, and is desirous that her people should be aware that she regrets that it should be so, but we hear that there are reasons of state which make it most undesirable that it should be longer delayed. The Queen will take care, however, that it is not during the more solemn part of that season.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Sunday, the 4th inst., the residence of Mrs. Mary Newton, about three miles from Confederate Point, N. C., was completely destroyed by fire, and Mrs. Newton herself, an aged lady, was so much injured, as to cause her death in a few hours.—Pet. Express.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.—Upon glancing over the New York Tribune's Commercial Record of Monday, we notice the following rates which prevailed on Saturday: 10,000 Tennessee State Sixes, 60; 2,000 Va. State Sixes 62; 3,000 North Carolina State Sixes 62½; 45,000 Missouri State Sixes 61; American Gold 124½. The total exports of specie from New York for the week ending January 3, were $961,448.

A gentleman who arrived at Montgomery from Murfreesboro', reports that Captain Benj. C. Yancey, son of W. L. Yancey, fell in the late battle at that place, while gallantly leading his company. It was feared that he was mortally wounded.

DONATIONS FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Many persons in the State are ready to contribute what they can spare in clothing, shoes, blankets, &c., for the benefit of the soldiers of North Carolina, provided they can be made certain that the articles sent will reach their destination. We have taken some pains to ascertain how this can be done, and the following is the result of our inquiries. These arrangements may be relied upon:

1. Governor Vance has ordered the Captain of every militia district in the State to call upon each family in their several districts, to purchase or collect what they may be willing to give to the North-Carolina soldiers. Blankets, jeans, linseys, leather, shoes, socks, carpets and clothes ready made, to be delivered by the Colonel of the regiment to the Quartermaster in Raleigh, to be forwarded by him to the proper regiment or company.

2. Besides this, the people of one or more Captain's districts, if their donations are sufficiently large to justify it, may select a gentleman whom they may prefer to carry on their donations to the regiment or company, and the State will furnish the transportation and pay the necessary expenses of the agent.

3. All articles donated should be carefully put up in packages, bags, boxes or barrels, and they should be legibly directed to the soldier or company for whom they are intended, naming the company and regiment, and if possible the brigade.

4. Persons who wish to send articles to any soldier or company, but who do not find it convenient to deliver it to the Captain of their district, or to a special Agent, by directing it carefully as above, may deliver it to the nearest Railroad Agent, directed to the care of Captain Q. W. Garrett, Quartermaster at Raleigh, N. C., and it will be promptly forwarded.

5. All articles intended for sick or wounded soldiers, or for hospitals, must be carefully directed, and sent to the care of Surgeon General Warren, Raleigh, N. C.

Headquarters Camp of Instruction,

CAMP HOLMES, Nov. 24, 1862.

SPECIAL ORDERS, No. 12.

I. COMMANDING OFFICERS OF MILITIA REGIments are required to assemble all persons subject to the provisions of the act entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to provide further for the public defence," approved September 26, 1862, and enroll the same.

II. An Enrolling Officer and an Examining Board will be appointed for each Congressional District, who will give due notice to the Commanding Officers of Regiments to bring the Conscripts to the County Seats of their respective Counties for examination. Immediately upon examination, the said Commanding Officers of Regiments will conduct all Conscripts not having received certificates of exemption to the Camp of Instruction, near Raleigh.

III. All persons who may desire to volunteer must do so before the 20th of December, the day set apart for enrollment, and must join companies which were in the service of the Confederate States on the 16th of April, 1862.

IV. Applications for exemption must, in all cases, be made to the Enrolling Officer of the District; duplicate copies of said application being made in writing, duly sworn to before an acting Justice of the Peace, and bearing the certificate of the Clerk of the Court, given under the County Seal and sent through the Colonel of the Regiment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the Enrolling Officer to the Commandant of Conscripts.

V. All Conscripts engaged on Government works will be enrolled and returned to their said work.

In issuing the above orders for the enrollment of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 35, the Commandant avails himself of the opportunity to thank the State Officers for their untiring and laborious efforts in the discharge of their duties and the efficient and ready assistance rendered to him in their official capacity heretofore.

The importance and absolute necessity of renewed energy and prompt action in executing these orders faithfully, is fully expressed in His Excellency Governor Vance's General Order, No. 10.

The efficiency of the army and the safety of our country depends, in a great measure, upon their faithful discharge of these duties.

By order of Colonel PETER MALLETT, Commandant of Conscripts in N. C.

[illegible]

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUBlication of the New-Orleans Christian Advocate at an early day, under the [illegible] Conference, and endow the [illegible] Joint Stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen, to assure the necessary [illegible].

It will be on the same [illegible] a Southern Advocate—[illegible] and the following [illegible] Southern Church, Slavery and [illegible] of the Southern Church, Slavery and [illegible] of the Southern Church, Slavery and [illegible] of the day;

"The Yankees have now got possession of Alexandria, Fairfax, and Manassas, but shortly they will have more. It is impossible to divine what Congress will do unless they take possession of the Exchange building, and make plans of [illegible] Perhaps Congress can keep a hotel."

"It will [illegible] with the Yankees," nor excite the sensibilities of those in authority, we would suggest that some of the patriotic gentlemen [illegible] in Main street, [illegible] the [illegible] of the Council of Safety, [illegible] Yankees in this county, make, [illegible] Yankee money, retire to camp [illegible] Yankee masters in that county, and in [illegible] same time [illegible] people to support the [illegible] of Lincoln in their crusade upon the legal citizens of the Northwest."

Much [illegible] we have to [illegible] have been movements going on and the [illegible] determination of the Government in Richmond and State we have but little fear as to the result. Though we are not permitted to give particulars we can assure our people that the Government will do all in its power for North Carolina. The enemy are constantly massing a heavy force on our coast and a severe and bloody battle is to be fought on our soil, and the same vandals that have assaulted and [illegible] the [illegible] of the enemy go there in Virginia and Maryland will confront them here. Let us sustain and shield by State and Confederate authority, and do our duty as men and patriots whose all is staked in a common cause, and all will be well.

The Militia Called Out

We publish this morning a circular from the Executive Department, addressed to the Militia Colonels of Rockingham, Franklin, Martin, Green, Pasquotank, Currituck, Gates, Camden, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Gaston, Halifax, Bertie, Johnston, Nash, Pitt, Wilson, Wake, Randolph, Orange, Alamance, Warren, Edgecombe, Lenoir, Wayne, Harnett, Duplin, Chatham and Granville, ordering them to muster their regiments for six days' drill, under existing laws, and organize them and hold them in readiness to march, at a moment's warning. The Colonels are urged to expedite this duty as much as possible and report to Adjutant General Martin.

The call is made, the muster or emergency men, we hope that them having the organization in charge will perform their duty promptly and faithfully and that the people in the counties enough every [illegible] able to use a gun, will come cheerfully up to their duty in this hour of the State's great peril, and that the insolent invader may be driven back and our soil freed from his polluting presence.

If the militia can be raised and equipped it may be of great service at this time, even if they are never called upon to face the enemy, for in the presence of large bodies of the enemy there will be other things to look after.

Remember, the very heart of the State, even the Capital itself is menaced by an enemy who seeks our subjugation, and let there be no half-finding, no murmuring, no shirking now. The State expects every man to do his duty, and he is an unfaithful son that falters in the hour of great peril.

Specie.—At a sale of stocks in Petersburg on Saturday, N. C. 6's brought 117½ a 118.

Confederate 8's 1865 a little [illegible] R. R. 5's Railroad stock 73½.

Gen. Lane.—The Knoxville Register of the 3rd says:

"Gen. Lane, of Kansas, with several North Carolina, and seventy-odd Kentucky prisoners, captured by Gen. Carter and command, reached Knoxville last night.

[illegible] to be thrown in the way, [illegible] officers in this county, who [illegible] Government, [illegible] harmony with the Confederate authorities, we see no reason why it should not [illegible] interference by any assuming [illegible] to permit the State officers, [illegible] with any one who is in the actual service of the Confederacy. He will carry out the instructions of the legislature, and form the Regiments, out of [illegible] of the militia of this State in the actual service of the Confederacy, and one or any other able-bodied man who will volunteer.—Confederate Union.

So it seems that the Governor of Georgia is officially engaged in taking care of the State interests in accordance with the law of the Legislature of that State, and the Confederate authorities will have [illegible] in whatever [illegible] may meet with by virtue of any of the militia [illegible] the service and that Georgia troops will [illegible] detained. Here [illegible] according to the Governor and Legislature, but we venture the assertion that not one or three will be stopped on Gov. Brown by the people of Georgia, [illegible] Union as North Carolina [illegible] Confederacy.

VICKSBURG.

The following is from the Jackson Miss., Crisis of the 21:

"After making one of two spiritless demonstrations upon our lines, in the vicinity of Vicksburg, the enemy has remained rather quiescent. Perhaps he is collecting up all his strength for the next onset. Perhaps he is waiting for co-temporaneous [illegible] on Port Hudson, and other points. Be this as it may, he will find to his cost, that this 'Yankee is a hard road to travel.' We feel the greatest confidence in our ability to hold the river against the enemy at Port Hudson. This confidence rests [illegible] Our troops are determined, and as brave as enemy. Our natural advantages are great, to which science has added immensely its strength.

Our Army is in [illegible] fortifying those points, and compelling the enemy to retire in disgust. A friend of Aaron.

We have a Commander, in comparison with whom is the possession of skill, science, strategy, courage, and all other qualities which characterize a great military genius, such men as Grant, Sherman, McClernand, et id omne genus, sink into insignificance. They would by him and [illegible] to the enemy, whose Johnston's advice would accomplish results with the classmates of West, and the popularity of political position.

Above all, we have in the justice of Almighty Providence. The days of [illegible] bloody and [illegible] attacks of the [illegible] are numbered. The time of its [illegible] approaches rapidly. It will not have another element to work upon [illegible] troops. It must come to the ultimate [illegible] Lincoln Ward for the [illegible] Council [illegible] Delegation [illegible] Assembly.

Sad Occurrence.—Mr. A. Wilson, of Dead Hill, Randolph County, N. C., committed suicide on the 11th inst. He [illegible] with a relative. It appears that her husband, Mr. Wilson, [illegible] well, and took children [illegible] was upon its death bed and the other very low. [illegible] of the neighborhood had come in to [illegible] and assist in taking care of the sick. About 4 o'clock in the morning they [illegible] Mrs. Wilson who remained by the bedside of her sick child. In about an hour Mr. Wilson awoke, and missing his wife, called her several times, and receiving no answer, became alarmed and commenced searching for her, and about 6 o'clock found her lying outhouse near his dwelling weltering in her own blood with the instrument of death lying by her side. The parent had, a few days before, buried a very interesting boy about two years old, and at the same time his surviving child was lying at the point of death, and died in a few days after.—Wednesday Argus.

How Parson Fox Manages.—The Columbus Sun, of the 8th inst., says:

One hundred and fifteen negroes, comprising all ages and sexes, were sold in Lynchburg, Tuesday at auction. The total amount of the sale was $110,000, average $1,034.62, among the largest ever obtained in Virginia. The highest price obtained was for a negro man, 21 years old, an ordinary field hand, but very likely, who brought $2,425; the lowest for a woman 40 years old, $120. The Republican says Abraham's proclamation has set negro property up like a sky rocket.

Resignation and Appointment.—We learn that James F. Robertson, Esq., having resigned the position of Chief Engineer and Superintendent of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, the Directors in their Council, Capt. Henry M. Rutledge, to the position thus left vacant.—Wilmington Journal.

Leave of Absence.—The following list of furloughs granted by Surgeon General Edward Warren from the Jamesville and Bible Soldier's and Sailor's Home:

19 furloughs 3 days; 12 [illegible] 7 [illegible] 1 [illegible] 2 [illegible] 1 pillows and slips; 20 pair drawers; 4 handkerchiefs; 3 blankets; 3 shoes, mules; 4 pounds tea; 6 pounds pepper; 6 [illegible]; 2 large fruit cakes; 1 [illegible] Confectionery.
